21 Bankruptcy Case No. 19-30088-DM
22 Chapter 11
23 (Lead Case)
24 (Jointly Administered) Case
25 No. 19-30089-DM
26 Proof of Claim No. 54975
27 Filed October 21, 2019
28 Camp Fire
29 JUDGE: Hon. Dennis Montali

30
31 APPELLANT'S DESIGNATION OF 32 RECORD AND STATEMENT OF ISSUES
33 ON APPEAL FROM BANKRUPTCY
34 COURT

35
36 The bankruptcy court erred when it allowed the case to move through Confirmation with 37 the following difficulties:

38 1. self-contradictory language in the Confirmation Order itself. That such problems 39 were not caught and corrected demonstrated the Court rushed the decision so that

1 PG&E could obtain its funding and emerge from bankruptcy by that all important
2 date of June 30, 2020, in time to qualify for participation in the AB 1054's
3 Wildfire Fund;

- 4 2. failing to obtain an Estimation of Total Damages as required by 11 U.S.C.
5 Section 502(c), 28 U.S.C. 157(b)(2)(B) and 28 U.S.C. 157(c)(1), despite multiple 6 requests that such an Estimation be made prior to Confirmation;
- 7 3. approving the Fire Victim Claims Resolution Procedures and Release and 8 Indemnification Forms even though they deny access to the courts for final 9 resolution of settlement disputes to all but a handful of fire victim claimants 10 identified in the Confirmation Order (there is currently a motion before the 11 Bankruptcy Court to revise the language in the Confirmation Order to extend 12 access to the courts to thousands more fire victim claimants but that motion has 13 not yet been ruled upon. Even if the motion is approved the Fire Victim Claims 14 Resolution Procedures will still deny access to the courts to thousands of victims, 15 who for whatever reason did not return a vote, to resolve potentially inequitable 16 settlement decisions by the Fire Victim Trustee);
- 17 4. failing to ensure that the types of damages included or excluded from 18 compensation in the proposed Restructuring Plan the impaired class claimants 19 received to vote upon was explained;
- 20 5. failing to ensure that the Official Committee of Tort Claimants (the TCC) was 21 meeting its obligation to keep the claimants it was charged with representing 22 informed about important matters in the bankruptcy case;
- 23 6. confirming a Plan where the Fire Victim Trust Agreement which holds victims' 24 compensation hostage to the signing of releases that are unconscionable and 25 possibly contrary to California law and public policy;
- 26 7. allowing the settlements with the Tubbs Fire Preference Claimants and the 2015
27 Butte Fire Claimants to be sealed, when that information is essential to properly
28 calculate of an Estimation of Total Damages;

1       8. requiring claimants to vote on a Reorganization Plan when key elements had yet 2       to be determined instead of requiring parties to reach an agreement before the 3       Plan could be submitted for voting;

4       9. allowing the Solicitation Packet to be sent out for a vote when it contained no
5       information to allow voters to determine if the proposed aggregate settlement 6       amount of $13.5 billion for fire victims was based upon anticipated full 7       compensation of all costs allowed under California law or a discounted rate of 8       compensation;

9       10. allowing the Solicitation Packet to be sent out without a clear statement
10       understandable by the average person with a high school education that the $13.5 11       billion aggregate settlement amount being offered was actually worth a minimum 12       of $6.75 billion and a maximum of more than $13.5 billion, depending upon the 13       unknowable future value of as yet undetermined number of shares of stock that 14       was being transferred into the Fire Victim Trust;

15       11. failing to treat similarly-situated fire victim claimants in a similar manner. The 16       Tubbs Preference Fire Victims were allowed to pursue their claims in State Court 17       supposedly because the resolution of those claims would provide important 18       information for the Estimation of Damages, yet the pre-trial settlement of those 19       claims was sealed. Therefore, these 50 claimants received the benefit of 20       knowing what their approved settlement amount will be, and there was no benefit 21       to the remaining claimants and in fact no Estimation of Total Damages was ever 22       made.

23       12. extending the period of Exclusivity for the Debtors, effectively denying the fire 24       victim claimants the opportunity to be presented with more than one option to 25       resolve the bankruptcy. There were other offers, one of which reportedly would 26       have provided an all-cash settlement of $13.5 billion to the fire victims, but we 27       were never allowed to see or consider those offers. Instead we were given a 28       “take it or leave it” offer, with no time or opportunity to insist on something

1 better.

2 13. failing to resist pressure from the California Legislature to reach a hurried and 3 flawed resolution to the bankruptcy in to ensure that PG&E would be able to 4 participate in AB 1054 Wildfire Fund protection. The Court repeatedly referred 5 to the necessity to ensure that PG&E emerged from bankruptcy by June 30, 2020.
6 It seems clear that the need to protect PG&E's ability to participate in AB 1054's
7 Wildfire Fund was assigned greater importance than the need to ensure that fire 8 victims were compensated in as fair, equitable, and timely a means possible. The 9 federal judiciary cannot afford to let the legislature put time limits on legal 10 proceedings, even if the limit is only expressed as a penalty to be imposed upon a 11 litigant in a case. The federal judiciary cannot afford to let the state executive 12 branch intimidate it by threatening to seize control of one litigant. If the State of 13 California is allowed to think it can get away with that type of tactic, it won't be 14 the judiciary that suffers, it will be the people.

15 14. failing to appoint an independent Examiner to look into the voting problems, or 16 at least request an appearance by a representative of the firm that did the actual 17 mailing of the solicitation materials to answer questions regarding when the 18 mailings were sent out. Acceptance of the TCC's findings is not sufficient, as 19 they did not address the question of possible delays in the actual mailing of 20 materials.

21 15. failing to provide any information regarding a possible timeline for the expected 22 payment of claims and winding down of the Fire Victim Trust. There were 23 numerous references to a desire to pay claimants quickly, but the actual 24 documents require the Trustee to file a 5-year budget, and the State Agencies 25 Settlement Agreement has payouts spread out for more than 5 years. Those two 26 factors, together with common sense that says selling off millions of shares of 27 stock must take considerable time to receive a fair price demonstrates that the fire 28 victims are looking at a minimum of several years to receive final payments on their claims.

16. failing to recognize the unique position of Camp Fire claimants as the only ones with an admission of guilt for criminal conduct from PG&E, and as the only ones whose complete social support structure was destroyed by the fires. The degree of devastation from the Camp Fire is far beyond any seen in any of the other fires. It will be many more years before the Paradise Irrigation District is able to restore full water service to every lot in the Town, and possibly 10 to 20 years before the housing stock that was lost can be fully replaced. During that time the cost of building will continue to increase. There is no mention of a reserve of funds for the fire victims to draw upon to meet those increasing costs or how that will affect other claimants.

17. allowing the Subrogation Claimants to be put into separate classes

(Class 5A-II and Class 5B-II) from other Fire Victim Claimants (Class 5A-III and Class 5B-III), with no explanation to justify the separation of the two groups.

18. allowing the Subrogation Claimants to reach a settlement agreement that had an actual dollar amount, even though the Estimation of Total Damages required by 11 U. S. C. 502(c) had not been made and the Court had no means of knowing if the amount offered to actual fire victims would fully compensate them for their losses;

19. finally, proceeding with the confirmation of the Plan despite the Court's inability to provide a clear and workable means of communication and method for the fire victims to participate in the bankruptcy process. It was not the Court's fault that the world was plunged into a pandemic that resulted in services being shut down, but it was the Court's decision to continue with the bankruptcy proceedings. That decision may have been influenced by a feeling that it was necessary to conclude matters before June 30, 2020, so that PG&E could participate in the benefits of AB 1054's Wildfire Fund.

1       There are undoubtedly many small issues that will be corrected over time in the normal
2 course of moving forward, but the issues above are too significant to be simply worked out over
3 time. Having the hearings available to watch via Zoom made the case more accessible to fire
4 victims, because we did not have to travel to San Francisco to see the hearings. It allowed me 5 the ability to see things that raised great concern not only about the settlement we were being 6 offered but about the unreasonable sense of urgency to conclude the case even if that meant 7 compromising the quality of the result.

8       The three branches of government are supposed to be separate but equal. The 9 independence and strength of the judiciary can best be demonstrated by correcting the issues that 10 were caused, in part, by PG&E's constant reminders of the artificial and capricious June 30, 11 2020, deadline for it to emerge from bankruptcy.

7 Counter Statement of Issues on Appeal

8 The issues on appeal are:

9 (1) Whether the appeal should be dismissed as equitably moot because, among other things, 10 the Plan has been substantially consummated, Appellant failed to either seek or obtain a stay of the 11 Confirmation Order pending appeal, and reversal of the Confirmation Order would completely 12 undermine the comprehensive settlements and financial restructuring embodied in the Plan and upon 13 which creditors, shareholders, the capital markets, the stock market, and the Reorganized Debtors’
 14 business partners, employees, and communities have relied, as well as the ability of the Reorganized 15 Debtors to obtain the benefit of A.B. 1054 and participate in the go-forward wildfire fund; and

16 (2) Whether entry of the Confirmation Order by the Bankruptcy Court constituted an abuse 17 of discretion or a plain error of law.
